Storm Death List Grows

Modern Adam and Eve Enter Maine Woods

SKOWHEGAN, Me., Oct. 1.—A modern Adam and Eve plunged into the woods near here early today for a two weeks' stay. Adam was Walter Bates of Gray, and Eve his wife.

They violated the biblical tradition by substituting bathing for the leaves. But they entered the wilderness with empty hands, prepared to wrench sustenance from the earth—roots—or from the berry bushes, or from wherever else it might appear.

The two are familiar with the woods, and are confident of success in their experiment. They expect to send accounts of their experience to a Portland paper.

Nobody seems to know whether they have hunting licenses or not, but they will have to live as vegetarians.

One man was killed and six persons were injured when two automobiles collided today at the corner of Main street and the Falls boulevard, Melrose Highlands.

KILLED.
MURRAY, WILLIAM, No. 165 Winchester street, Chelsea, was badly crushed, died on operating table at hospital.

INJURED.
MANLEY, JOSEPH C., No. 310 W. Heaven, Everett, owner and operator of one of the touring cars.

FRAMED NIGHT ARE.
CORBETT, WILLIAM F., No. 37 Winchester street, Everett; severe fractures and contusions.

TULOW, ALBERT, Chelsea, contusions and possibly internal injuries.

OWEN, W. W., From street, heavily shaken up and cut.

The accident occurred shortly after noon. Miss Margaret McIntosh of No. 124 Summer street, Malden, was running west on the boulevard in a touring car.

The other car, owned and operated by Manley, came up Main street, running north.

Manley tried to cross the street in front of Miss McIntosh's car. The touring car hit his car on the side and knocked it over and over.

There were three women and three men in the car besides himself. All were knocked unconscious. A case of beer in the tonneau was smashed on the roadway. The party was on its way to the Rockingham Fair.

Miss McIntosh was driving toward her home with an elderly woman, recently recovered from an operation, and who was having her last taste of the open air after her illness.

She became hysterical, but the McIntosh car was able to proceed under its own power. The other machine was demolished.

Tomorrow Is Flower Day in Dorchester

Tomorrow will be Flower Day in Dorchester, and hundreds of young women will have parties to sell at and give from five cents to $1. The proceeds are to be divided between the Dorchester House, the free dispensary at No. 24 Adams street, and the Dorchester District Nurses House.

Atlanta Man Hurt in Auto Overtaken

WILDEWATER, Oct. 1.—W. H. Smith, an Atlanta, Ga., business man, and his chauffeur were injured when the automobile in which they were driving from Oremville to Unionville and overtook.

OPERATE ON MAINE PRELATE

Bishop Robert Codman of Maine is seriously ill at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital.

Bishop Codman was taken ill while on his honeymoon. He was married some two weeks ago to Miss Margarette Middle Porter of Philadelphia and Washington.

The marriage took place at St. Harbinger and Bishop Codman and his bride at once started on a honeymoon on his yacht, cruising along the Maine coast.

The honeymoon was interrupted by Bishop Codman's illness. He and his bride came to Boston last week. He became worse after arriving here and was brought to the hospital. It was admitted his condition was serious.

In Maine, Bishop Codman's diocese had services today to pray for his recovery. At St. Luke's Cathedral in Portland there was a continuous intercession through the day. The same service will be held tomorrow.

Bishop Codman was not to resume his duties till November 1, as he expected to be home tomorrow.

Give Terms on Which Germany Would End War

By International News Service.

BERLIN, Oct. 1.—Conditions on which Germany would be willing to make peace are set forth in an interview granted by Herr Zimmermann, under-secretary of foreign affairs, to the correspondent of the Neue Norddeutsche Zeitung and published today in the Lokal Anzeiger.

These include:

1.—Guarantees assuring Germany of safety from future attack.

2.—Settlement of the Belgian question in such manner as to secure Germany that the Belgian army cannot serve as the vanguard of British forces in the future.

3.—Satisfactions as to the future of Poland which will make that nation a "buffer state," preventing invasion on Germany by Russia.

As regards Holland, Herr Zimmermann said:

Holland has nothing to fear from Germany, which will not violate its neutrality or interfere with its political and economic independence. Germany declares Holland's strict neutrality.

Regulations for Pheasant Shooting

The following statement regarding the shooting of pheasants was issued today from the office of the Fish and Game Commission:

"The pheasant season opens October 15, at last year, and continues to November 15, both dates inclusive, in the counties of Barnstable, Norfolk, Dukes, and Berkshire. In the counties of Bristol, Hampden, and Hampshire, the season is from October 15 to November 15, both dates inclusive.

"The killing is to be reported in writing to the Commission.

Curley Chairman of Convention Against Bus Line

Judge Raymond in the Superior Court in East Cambridge today ordered a verdict of guilty in the case against the Waltham Auto Bus Company, charged with operating a jitney line in Newton without a license.

The jitney run from Newton to Waltham and Waltham, collecting no fares till they get outside the Newton city limits. The case is to go to a higher court on appeal facts.

Curley Chairman of Convention Against Bus Line

Mayor Curley today was selected to serve as chairman of the Democratic convention when it convenes in this city tomorrow. He has consented to act as the agent, solicitation of the Democratic State Committee.

Mulroy Sentenced for Abduction

Martin J. Mulroy was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction by Judge Dubuque of the Superior Court today, on a charge of abducting eleven-year-old Catherine Bacon from her home in the North End.

Classes for Foreigners

Chelsea's night schools, which open October 4, will have classes in English and American history and in the study of the English language for the benefit of foreigners anxious to become naturalized.

Leaf Bonfires in Brighton Barred

Leaf bonfires on the streets of Brighton were ordered discontinued today as a result of a joint conference between Mayor Curley and a delegation from the Abolitionist Association. Under the agreement reached, instead of each property owner burning up the dead leaves on his street, fronting his house, they will be collected in barrels, removed by the city once a week and burned at the city yard in that district later.

SLEEPS IN BED OF SALE

GALESTON, Tex., Oct. 1.—A radio message received here today from New Orleans stated that the full force of the storm of last Wednesday struck at Houma, La., a city of 5,000 inhabitants. Tremendous loss of life is feared, the message said. From the district between Houma and Morgan City no word has been received up to noon. Much damage was inflicted along the water front at New Orleans, including the destruction of the Southern Pacific wharves and office.

Shipping along the New England coast today prepared to jump for shelter at the first sign of trouble, for storm warnings have come from Washington and the local Weather Bureau.

The Washington warning reads: "Violent northeast storm warning from Portland to the Delaware Breakwater. A storm over ocean, Virginia and the Ohio valley is moving northward. A northeast to easterly gale this afternoon to tonight, with rain, is indicated."

Shortly afterward the local Weather Bureau issued this forecast: "Main tonight and Saturday. Fresh and high easterly wind."

MEMPHIS REPORTS 132 PERSONS KILLED BY GULF HURRICANE

By International News Service.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 1.—One hundred and thirty-two persons were killed in the Gulf hurricane, Wednesday and Thursday, more than 100 were injured and approximately 100 are missing, according to reports received by railroad officials here today.

Woods Drops One Job But Gets Another

Because of an alleged fact that he could not pass the Civil Service examination necessary to hold that position, Assistant Deputy Secretary of Weights and Measures Arthur Woods resigned his $1,000-a-year job, and later was appointed assistant registrar in the election department at $1,100 a year.

GIRL HUGGED BY BEAR LIVES TO TELL THE STORY

Thelma Williams, the little ten-year-old Chelsea girl, and "Dodo," the bear, showing just how the child attempted to repel the beast.

Little Thelma Williams had to tell her schoolmates all about it, over and over today.

It was like the story of the Big Bear, and the Middle Street Bear, and the Little Bear, all come to life.

Thelma is a ten-year-old Chelsea schoolgirl. She lives at No. 7 Third street. Her mother is Mrs. Thomas Williams. And she's the only little girl in Chelsea who was ever hugged by a bear and lived to tell about it.

Thelma wasn't hurt a bit. She was scared—little—till after it was over. And her sweater was torn. But the man that owns the bear, Henry A. Smith of No. 43 Sudbury street, promises to get her a new sweater.

The bear is a performer in a miniature circus at Park and Pearl streets, Chelsea; and a part of his performance is to hug and wrestle his master. Yesterday, little Thelma came along, and the bear made up his mind right then she was sweet enough to hug.

So he did. So Thelma has something to tell her friends about for the rest of her life.

Senators-Red Sox "Held Up" by Rain

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The game between the Red Sox and the Senators, which was scheduled to be played here today, was called off on account of rain. A double-header will be played tomorrow, Wood and Ruth will pitch for Boston, while Johnson will oppose the Senators in one of the games.

Start Ronan Park Work on Monday

Work on the proposed $100,000 Ronan Park improvements will start on next Monday at the latest, according to plan outlined by Mayor Curley today. The plans include provision for the regrading of the park, drives, walks, a ball park and several other betterments.

PARIS CHECKED NEW ATTACK

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Dispatches from Paris via Rome report that Belgian troops have invaded Serbia at three points, driving back border patrols that attempted to oppose them.

The dispatches are printed in Rome with the comment that official confirmation has not been received.

By International News Service.

BERLIN, Oct. 1.—British forces west of Lens have been fought to a standstill and the German counter-attacks in the region of Loos are making progress, it is officially announced by the German War Office.

An official statement from the War Office today states that French attacks north of Arras and in the Champagne have been successfully repulsed, and that the Germans have taken 104 officers and 7,019 prisoners in the Champagne district alone.

In the Champagne the French have hurled forward an enormous mass of new troops from seven different divisions taking part in the storm attack against the German positions north of Meuse.

FARIS REPORTS ALL ATTACKS BY GERMANS IN THE WEST REPULSED

By International News Service.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—German counter-attacks, launched during the night in Champagne and in the Ardennes district, in efforts to regain the positions captured by the allies, have been repulsed, the War Office announced today.

The question asked by all when the allies opened their offensive was: "Will the Anglo-French forces be able to hold the ground gained when the Germans make their counter-attacks?"

Today's communiqués from the War Office answer this question in the affirmative. It shows that the fighting, now in its seventh day, is proceeding under conditions favorable to the allies, despite the fact that they are being attacked by German forces from the north, including the famous Prussian Guard.

"Two German attacks were launched during the night, one against the small fort which was captured yesterday, and another against the other upon the crumpled where we had taken the fort. Both were completely repulsed."

"The number of prisoners taken in the night was 214. Both were completely repulsed."

which are engaged in a continuous duel. British warships are shelling the German positions on the North Sea coast, while from Klaupert to the Tyne-Meuse road French, British and Belgian cannon are keeping up a concentrated fire against the German positions.

South of Arras the Germans are vigorously attacking the French positions on both sides of the Somme River, and it is indicated that they will try to effect a counter offensive there.

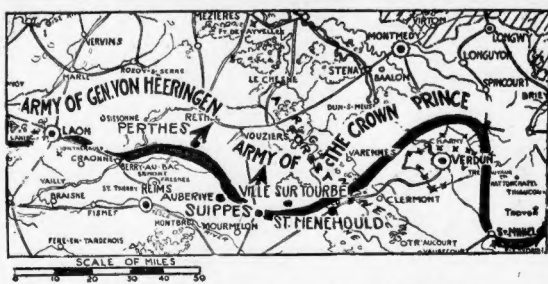

Near Soissons, in the Champagne where the French have driven a salient into the German line reaching to Reims, the Germans are battering at both sides of the French extension to cut it off and thus reverse the menace to the German line of communication.

Aeroplane are taking a more prominent part in this battle than in any other that has been fought on the front. Not only are the allied aviators being used for scout duty and to find artillery targets, but they are attacking the railroads within the German line and are shelling ammunition depots and troop columns behind the German front.

The French fortification of machine guns that took part in the bombardment of Valenciennes, between the Oise and Aisne rivers, consisted of seventy-two aeroplane, the greatest number that has taken part in any raid since the war began. Valenciennes is on a narrow gauge railway which lies between Compiègne and Reims, north of the Aisne River. One branch of the line runs to Laon, the headquarters of General von Heeringer's German army.

Attacks upon this railway line are designed to cripple the communication lines with General von Heeringer's army and part of that of General von Kluck. These forces hold the apex of the German position in France.

Many more prisoners have been taken by the allies and the capture of 15 guns in the Champagne is regarded as a military achievement of the highest importance.

In the Argonne the German Crown army has been battered and badly that part of the army of General von Strasser has been sent to silence it.

BREAK GERMAN LINE AT WILL, SAYS LONDON MILITARY EXPERT

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The Chronicle's military correspondent writes:

"These last five days have changed the whole aspect of the war. They have brought eventual victory within the region of absolute and calculable certainty. They have shown that mastery in the west now belongs definitely to the allies in such a degree that, whenever and at whatever point the hammer stroke is now delivered, it will go crashing through the series of line fortifications upon which the enemy has spent twelve months of anxious attention and scientific ingenuity, and upon the security of which all his hopes, not of victory, but of an honorable peace, as he calls it, are entirely based.

"Such an attack will bring the inevitable and nearer.

"After a time it will come to be a matter of chipping deeply at the front. Suddenly a vital spot will be reached.

"This may happen any day, and then will come a sudden shrinking of the German line and the abandonment of a large part, perhaps all of the occupied territory.

"Such a point, for example, is the railroad station near Grand Pré, north of the Argonne, upon which the French are directing their efforts from Massiges. The moment this railway is severed, the position of the Crown Prince in the Argonne would be seriously threatened, and the long and costly German effort to turn the Meuse heights from the rear would have been brought to nothing.

"The abandonment of the Argonne would mean, in the long run, a general German retirement along the whole line, probably to the line of the Sambre and the Meuse.

"Similarly, British capture of La Bassée and Lens would be followed by a withdrawal of the whole German line before Lille.

"The tale of the booty, gratifying as it is, is nothing like so important as the clear and certain evidence that not merely the clearing of the Argonne and Belgium, but the definite defeat of the enemy is within our power.

"That is the lesson of the last five days' offensive."

BULGARS MUST STATE STAND OR DISARM

By International News Service.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Bulgaria will be forced to determine what position she will take in the Balkan situation. The German position today shows that Germany is as anxious as the allies to determine what King Ferdinand's final action will be.

A Rome dispatch says that an ultimatum will be sent to Bulgaria from the German government, but it is hardly expected here that the ultimatum will take on the form of an actual ultimatum from either side.

The allies, it is generally understood, will exert their influence through direct, first their ally being evidenced by the speech of Premier Venizelos before the Parliament at Athens, in which he said:

"I should be happy if the quieting assurances given by the governments of both the mobilized Balkan States should be followed by simultaneous and prompt recall of mobilization, thus bringing to an end the present state of tension."

King Ferdinand of Bulgaria has telegraphed King Constantine that he is doing his utmost to preserve the friendly relations between them.

Observers of the Balkan situation say that the Greek premier's proposal of joint demobilization opens the way for a graceful backdown on the part of King Ferdinand.

Demobilization is avoided with intense interest.

Germany's efforts to make Ferdinand decide his future course are said to have been the cause of new territorial offers, fulfillment of which would make Bulgaria the dominant power in the Balkans.

A Bucharest dispatch says that Germany has offered Bulgaria all of Macedonia, all of old Serbia and Albania with a port on the Adriatic coast.

Says Germany Shows Little Effect of War

NEW HAVEN, Ct. Oct. 1.—According to Dr. L. D. Bissell, a Yale graduate, who writes to the Yale News from Munich, conditions in Germany are more nearly normal than in either France or England, despite the "fabricators of false news," whose reports are freely allowed by the British censor to be called to America.

Munich, and Germany in general, at the end of August, he says, present the same conditions of life as the American tourist is accustomed to see.

"The hope of starving Germany has probably been abandoned," he declares. "There is a large surplus of wheat and potatoes. American wheat has not suffered for lack of food and prices have been lowered at home. Moreover, American wheat has been treated with special consideration. Americans with business interests have suffered severely since England has succeeded in stopping all trade with the United States.

There has been no suggestion even of strikes here and the laboring classes are loyal to a man.

The bitterness against the United States because of the furtherance of supplies to her enemies does not decrease.

ELIMINATION OF VON PAPEN ASSURED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Officials close to the President declared today that they expected definite action for the elimination of Captain von Papen, the German military attaché, as an enemy's attempt.

It is understood that Count von Helldorf has had it made plain to him that the usefulness of the attaché in this country is at an end.

Von Papen will not be ordered home simply because of the contents of the letter he wrote his wife, in which he used the term "Idiotia Yankens." The State Department admitted that today.

Among the letters sent by the British authorities from James F. J. Archibald were two in cipher addressed to the German War Office and signed by Ambassador Archibald. Fifteen letters, comprising the remainder of those sent from Archibald, were received by the State Department today.

GIRLS JOIN N POLICE CHASE OF BURGLAR

BROCKTON, Oct. 1.—Two high school girls, Edith Brown, fifteen, and her sister, Dorothy, eighteen, with several police officers, ran nearly a mile today in pursuit of a man suspected of robbing the Brown home on Pearl street. Not until the fugitive had outdistanced his pursuers did they stop.

Four-year-old baby Edith Brown gave the alarm. She awoke her father, J. Edward Brown. Investigation showed that $100 had been taken from the father's trousers pocket while he slept, and that other articles were missing.

The police were notified and arrived in time to see a man run from behind the Brown home.

Five other breaks were reported to the police during the night. They were at the home of Fred Harris and John Callahan in Belmont street, and of William D. Johnson, James Sullivan and Lawrence M. Harkin, in Pearl street.

EUGENIA KELLY DEFIES GOSSIP OF BROADWAY

By RUTH M. BYERS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Broadway is literally throwing mud at Al Davis here. I can't appear with him anywhere but tongue wag and I am sure to get a whole town can heap on one poor girl's head.

"I have only this to say, my life is in my own and I mean to live it as I think best. Private detectives, gossip, scandal and injudicious court, are futile outside other things that count in this world's life."

Why shouldn't I marry whom I please without other persons meddling in what is really none of their business?

For the first time Eugenia Kelly told me her own story—the story of all the unpleasant positions which she has followed her ever since the day last May, when her mother had her first husband.

Now, in last scandal—this dreadful report that Al Davis and I were engaged out of Murray's—the girl shrugged her shoulders, but she was troubled—"It is all an outrage."

WENT AFTER DRINKS.

"We went into Murray's because the act of a play because we were thirsty. We drank happily and left almost at once, because we did not want to miss any of the play. The whole thing is a lie from beginning to end. It is sheer Broadway's attitude toward Mr. Davis and myself as the wrong way."

"Everyone is going about this thing as if it were a scandal. Miss Kelly declared vehemently. "If they keep on it, I'll marry Al Davis simply because I have literally been thrown at him. What girl going to marry a persistent surveillance, constant gossip and everlasting suspicion?"

Mr. Davis and I went to the horse show at Mineola. Both have horses and dogs and we had a glorious day. We dined quietly at the club and no one thought to mention it. Why? Just because we were in a respectable place. But the minute the girls came on Broadway tongues begin to wag.

"I went to Broadway for all time. It makes me sick to see the scandalmongers there just waiting to tear a girl's reputation to shreds on a minute's notice. I'm only twenty, but I feel at times as though I were a hundred."

IN PEEL OF FRANKS.

"Al Davis went West when I did. We have always been good friends and intend to remain so. Of course, I am not engaged now. What I may do after Mr. Davis is divorced is quite another matter."

There are two sides to every story. This much I know, however. Al Davis does not like me because of money. What is in it for me? I can have what is coming to me, and I'll have it. I am as capable of managing my estate as any other girl. I have had to face alone what I have."

Miss Kelly's eyes were bright and her whole appearance was that of a tired, winsome girl, with all the signs of youth.

Do I look like a dope? "No," she said. "That's what Broadway says I am. Broadway does not know me, and I have suffered as much as I am going to at the lash of the monstrous scandal-mongering tongue."

"All I am afraid of now is that someone will try to frame up something against Mr. Davis. I hardly care, but I am not going to let it all so unpleasant and so dreadfully, this sort of branding for a girl. It is making me desperate."

Then she added quietly: Broadway has been the grave of more than one good girl's reputation. I know how it feels. After a while you just don't care what people say. Nothing ever saved any girl and never will."

MAN FINED FOR BREAKING AGED WOMAN'S NOSE

Michael J. Hagarty was fined $12 in the South Boston Court today for striking seventy-one-year-old Mrs. Clara Prodergast and her son.

Both live at No. 171 East Seventh street. Hagarty was taken to the police station to him and that she struck him over the head with a paragon. He said she broke her nose by falling against a door.

Mr. Prodergast testified that she and he use the paragon till after Hagarty struck her twice.

RECORDS SHOW SUIT AGAINST PASTOR HILL

By International News Service.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Despite the declaration of Miss Lucille Covington in Alpena, Mich., that her suit against the Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill is not for breach of promise, court records filed in the county clerk's office today show that Miss Covington is demanding $100,000 because Dr. Hill failed to carry out an alleged promise of marriage.

Among the records filed today was a affidavit in which Miss Covington says that Dr. Hill proposed to marry her in Chicago on July 15, 1910, and three days later he told her that he would give up his position as housing agent for the Lutheran and Chautauque departments of the Western Yacht Club Association and enter the ministry.

At the time, Miss Covington's counsel declared, the plaintiff did not know that Dr. Hill already had a wife.

REWARD FOR THE CAPTURE OF DORCHESTER FIREBUG NOW $200

Inspired by the hope of earning the $200 reward, a number of people have turned themselves into amateur sleuths in an effort to run down the mysterious firebug who has been terrorizing the Dorchester district.

In addition to the reward of the AMERICAN, Mayor Curley personally offers another $100 to anyone who gives information leading to the arrest and conviction of the firebug, who is accused of setting nearly a score of fires that have endangered the lives of hundreds of citizens and caused thousands of dollars damage.

PATROL DISTRICT

Among those who have volunteered their services to Captain Reardon are sixteen policemen of Station 11, who have offered to put in their time for sleeping and recreation, in patrolling the streets in the firebug's haunts.

Early today these sixteen men, instead of going to bed when their tour of the city ended, put on their citizens' clothes and sallied forth into the streets which patrolled until daylight.

In the hope of catching the firebug, the reward of $200.

Today the police are trying to solve the mystery of the ninth and, up to press time, the last Dorchester firebug who has been terrorizing the Dorchester district.

The fire, the many of the incendiary fire, was in an unfinished three-story wooden structure.

Raymond P. Dolan, a Uphaus Corner real estate man, says:

"This fire is no more than the number of being set by the same parties who set the other fires."

PROBE FALSE ALARM

Another feature that is being investigated today is the fact that at the time half a dozen buildings near the corner of Boston avenue and Hamilton streets, were burning up, someone pulled in a false alarm from a box a mile away, probably with the hope of averting enough apparatus to get a good start and result in a conflagration.

The man who pulled in this alarm was seen by a milkman, who, of course, did not know at that minute the alarm was false. The milkman got a good look at the person who pulled in the alarm and today gave a good description of him to the police.

Among the victims of the police dragnet today was a man the police at first thought was the firebug. This man lives in Jamaica Plain, several miles away, and has been seen at several of the previous fires. He told the police he was employed near the corner of the fire and was badly at work when they occurred. Being near the scene, he said, he naturally went to the fire when he heard the fire bells.

PRIZE AMERICAN

Residents of the Dorchester district are giving the AMERICAN great praise for the work it is doing in pursuing the officials into extra precautions and in enlisting the aid of the general public for any information furnished to its office, that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the firebug.

Mayor Curley has personally endorsed the action of the AMERICAN, so enthusiastic is he that he says he will double the reward out of his own pocket.

$200 REWARD $200

The AMERICAN will pay $100 for information furnished to the AMERICAN which will result in the arrest and conviction of the so-called Dorchester "firebug."

Mayor Curley out of his own pocket also offers a reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the "firebug."

This person is believed already to have set nine fires in Dorchester within six months, two of which resulted in the destruction of thousands of dollars' worth of property in the past three weeks.

Persons who have information should communicate at once with the City Editor of the AMERICAN (Telephone Main 5180). All information will be held in the strictest confidence.

This is not all the aid the AMERICAN has given. The AMERICAN today has authorized Corporation Counsel Sullivan to aid in the prosecution of any person or persons against whom the AMERICAN may obtain sufficient information to justify an arrest.

Today the Mayor also instructed Mr. Sullivan to draft a bill to be presented to the next Legislature, providing that there shall be an investigation of each suspicious fire, and that the one conducted by insurance companies, before they make payment on a policy.

Lowell Machinists Insist on Demands

LOWELL, Oct. 1.—Machinists employed at the plant of the United States Cartridge Company here, after balloting all night, voted to insist upon their original demands to the company.

The machinists at the plant have never gone on strike, though about half the working force—unskilled help—is now out.

Their demands will be presented to the company today, and after the committee the reported tonight vote to strike or not to strike will be taken.

Crompton-Knowles Strike Is Decried

WORCESTER, Oct. 1.—Joseph H. Gilmore, organizer of the Machinists Union, announced today that he will call a strike at the Crompton & Knowles Locking Works, the 1,400 machinists having authorized the action at his discretion.

"A strike will be called," he said today. "It is only a question of choosing the opportune time; it may be before tomorrow night."

Opinion Against the 'Movie Trust'

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.—Judge Dickinson in the United States District Court today handed down an opinion in favor of the United States government in its suit against the German anti-trust law in bringing about the dissolution of the so-called "movie trust."

Falls to Death Off Staging. Thomas Robertson, thirty, of 141 West 10th street, died at the Hotel Hamilton from a fractured skull received in a forty-foot fall from the stage of the new Orpheum Theatre, No. 411 Washington street.

FOSS URGES DRY PLATFORM

Former Governor Foss carried his prohibition plank into the office of the State Republican Committee to-day, threw it down on the table in front of the Committee on Resolutions and said in effect:

"Gentlemen, there's your only hope for victory."

The Committee on Resolutions was sitting in hear suggestions before drawing up the platform to be presented to the Republican State Convention tomorrow. Congressman Foss, and Mrs. J. George, secretary of the Massachusetts Anti-Suffrage Association, and they urged that the platform contain no reference to anti-prohibition.

Then came Mr. Foss. "National prohibition," he said, "is the only issue which can lead the Republican party to victory in this State this fall."

He proceeded to dispose of other issues. The tariff was a dead question while the war lasted, he said. Unemployment—there is none. Wages were never higher. Black times—a myth. Reciprocal trade reform—no more.

"We are not to stand for anything," he said, "but for the Republican and Democratic parties equally responsible for any of the State's ills."

"One hundred thousand drunkards were created in the State last year," he said. "That means the loss of $50,000,000."

MERCEDES, TEX., IN DANGER OF ATTACK

BROWNVILLE, Tex., Oct. 1.—Cavalry and artillery reinforcements reached the American troops at Progreso early today and a detachment was hurried to Mercedes as a result of reports that Mexican raiders had cut the wires leading to the town and were preparing for an attack.

As a result of the sharp warning sent to General Nafarrete, Mexican commander at Matamoros, the Carrancista troops there are expected to take the field against the bandits near Progreso. On his orders, the Mexican soldiers at Matamoros have arrested five of the band that captured and beheaded Private Johnson of the Twelfth Cavalry.

HUB SALESMAN SLAYS WIFE AND SELF

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Murray H. Gordon, twenty-five, who lived with his brother, Dr. Charles H. Gordon, at No. 1461 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, shot and killed his wife, Jessie Gordon, in Prospect Park, and then sent a bullet through his heart. Gordon was employed as a traveling salesman by the Universal Button Company of Boston. The couple were married September 15, 1912. They had separated, but a month ago were reunited and were apparently living happily until ten days ago, when Gordon returned from a trip. The shooting occurred while they were out for a walk.

Court Kind to Boy Fan Beating Way to Sox Game

ATLEBORO, Oct. 1.—A Chicago boy's tale of his abduction for the Red Sox and of how he was beating his way by freight to Boston to see the World's Series won him his freedom in the local district court today after he had been handcuffed for commitment to jail because he couldn't pay a $15 fine. And his name is Cobb, too—not "Ty," but William McKinley Cobb. The lad was taken from a freight train last night at Mansfield. Today in the local court he was accused of "evading officers" and was found guilty.

"Clear up, little boy," said Judge Charles H. Manchester, who heard the boy's story, told the court and the fine was remitted. Manchester took up a collection and Cobb was given money for meals and his fare to Boston.

WOMAN FREED ON AUTO DEATH CHARGE

Mrs. Dorothy Kemp of No. 1,669 Massachusetts avenue, Cambridge, was discharged by Associate Justice O'Brien in Lynn District Court today, on a charge of manslaughter, in connection with the death of Mrs. Isabel Fairbanks of Swampscott, who was run over and killed on Burritt street, Swampscott, on September 4 by an auto driven by Mrs. Kemp.

There was a hearing on the case Wednesday. Judge O'Brien gave testimony today.

Testimony at the hearing conflicted. Mrs. Kemp said that, when she turned into Burritt street her view was obstructed by another auto, that she did not see Mrs. Fairbanks, and that she was going only six miles an hour and sounding her horn. Witnesses for her testified the horn was sounded and the car was proceeding slowly.

Other witnesses testified the car was going about fifteen miles an hour, with no signals. Marian Brown, a Swampscott High School girl, testified that she was crossing the street at that time with a seven-year-old child and that, only for a moment's warning, she would have been run down by Mrs. Kemp's car.

SIX DISMISSED FROM ANNAPOLIS FOR HAZING

By International News Service.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—President Wilson today acted on the Annapolis Naval Academy hazing cases, ordering the dismissal of six men, the suspension of four for a year without pay, and the setting back of one year in their studies of fifteen.

The middlemen ordered dismissed are:

Robert H. Lamotte, first-class, from Washington State.
Alexander Holting, third class, from Pennsylvania.
Charles D. Tully, third class, from Kentucky.
Edward H. Hill, third class, from Idaho.
Dwight C. Cook, third class, from Ohio.

Secretary Daniels explained that while all had been dismissed for hazing, four of the six men expelled had been found guilty of perjury at their trial.

Daniels issued a statement declaring that the action taken was with a determination that hazing shall be for all times at the Academy.

Among the men turned back a year is Francis W. Benson, of the first class, son of Rear Admiral Benson, chief of the naval staff. The men suspended for a year are: W. C. Wilson of New York, Joseph E. Ives of Kentucky, Paul Dingwall of Rhode Island and David P. Minard of South Dakota.

M. J. Connolly of Massachusetts, second class, and Fred A. Westphal of Illinois, third class, are among the men turned back a year.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if cross, bilious or feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, fretful, crying, acting and acting suspiciously—look! Mother! see if tongue coated! This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of California Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the constipated poisons will have melted away, and your child will be happy and healthy again. Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "Fruit Laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and restore the stomach and they thereby love the pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle. For grown-ups, ask your druggist for a pleasant bottle of California Syrup of Figs; the one that is made by the California Fig Syrup Company.—Advertisement.

G. I. P. LEADERS HATCHING THEIR STATE CONVENTION PLANS TO "TAKE IN" EVERYBODY

be done—without really giving the Progressives anything—this today big point.

Realizing that the Equal Suffrage League has been the only organization to throw a wet blanket over any attempt to revive "the old platform," the order to the platform builders to produce a platform broad enough to "take in" everybody in Massachusetts must also be directed indirectly with the Democracy—and to make it just strong enough to survive until after the November election.

And today the great question arises: 1. How "broad" should the platform be? 2. Can Charles Sumner Bird be taken in with "old stuff"? As to this, there appeared today to be two views among Progressives, depending upon how one is to read Mr. Bird's letter of Wednesday night to the Republican candidate for Governor, Mr. McCall.

"One of the more practical" of Progressives discussed the Bird letter something like this:

"Mr. Bird, in his letter to Mr. McCall, has stipulated that the Republicans have to take Mr. Bird and his followers must do certain things. He names these things, but he asks Mr. McCall to do only certain things which Mr. Bird already knows that McCall wants done. These things which Mr. Bird asks Mr. McCall to do, and which he already knows Mr. McCall is willing to do, are absolutely non-negotiable so far as regards their importance to the Progressive program."

"Now, why has Mr. Bird made such a seeming surrender of principle to go back and clasp hands with the boss who, only a year ago, he said would take the name of all Hell?"

"In my opinion, and in the opinion of many others, it is because Mr. Bird would like, hopes and expects to be next year's Republican candidate for Governor of Massachusetts. And why not from the 'practical' point of view?"

"To McCall, by any chance, should be elected this year, with this understanding: he will owe his election to Charles Sumner Bird more than to any other man or to any thousand men. Then McCall for Henry Cabot Lodge's son in the United States Senate. Lodge will be state's next year and McCall will start five, while Bird takes the Governorship, the party will take the rest, and everybody will be delighted."

"My belief that Mr. Bird's letter to Mr. McCall is the first act in the latter's attempt to be next year's Republican candidate for Governor is based entirely upon the fact that the demands he makes upon the Republican machine are of things the machine is quite ready to grant."

"That my suspicion has at least some basis is indicated by an editorial in last night's issue of the Boston Evening Transcript, head the monthlies Boston, Leaven to the Transcript: 'Mr. Bird's THREATS ARE NOT STARTLING.'"

Mr. Bird's letter to Mr. McCall, promising surrender of his gubernatorial candidacy in certain platform contingencies, offers no obstacle to political harmony in this state. As was indicated in these columns yesterday, THE PROGRESSIVE LEADERS MAKE NO DEMAND FOR RECONCILIATION IN THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM OF ANY OF THEIR RADICAL OR EXPERIMENTAL TENETS. MR. BIRD IN THIS LETTER, SMILES HIS REQUEST TO PLANK FAVORING A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION, THE SHORT BALLOT, BIENNIAL ELECTIONS AND A BUDGET SYSTEM."

All of the projects named by Mr. Bird may with perfect consistency be put forward in a Republican State platform, not necessarily as concessions to any other organization—though Progressives would be quite welcome to facilitate themselves upon them as much as they pleased—but as original and perfectly consistent business propositions of the Republican party."

"Will any of the newspaper say that Mr. Bird's demands are not startling to Republicans?"

"The short ballot, for example, is certainly a Progressive non-essential and decidedly experimental. No one in Massachusetts, particularly in the hands of the Gang, and since it has lately received the distinguished approval of the high priest of the Island Fair congregation, trust of its virtue."

"And as with other domestic things, it is nothing startling to them to be Republicans. Coming from Charles Sumner Bird, however, as the limit of republicanism is possibly offer to the people the demands made by Progressives before surrendering their not only sincere Progressive, but they startle and give them terrible."

On the whole, however, the above view of the Bird letter to Mr. McCall by comparatively few Progressives was greeted with a shrug. MOST Progressives were inclined to the opinion that the Bird letter had not been carefully read, by Mr. Bird, by the headline writers of the public machine, by Democrats, or by the headline writers of the latter newspapers.

However, now, to the views of a prominent Progressive who holds that Mr. Bird has surrendered, WILLIAM McCall, to accept them, advise not CANNOT surrender to the machine and have them written into STAGE FIGHT.

Samuel W. McCall, who appeared annually before a Legislative Committee to oppose the Initiative and Referendum amendment, may actually take the floor at tomorrow's Tremont Temple convention of the Republicans to demonstrate how progressive he is.

Mr. McCall will take the floor, if necessary, to compel a platform declaration in favor of:

A Constitutional Convention (limited).
Biennial Elections.
The Short Ballot.

In his terrible conflict with the Republican State machine Mr. McCall will not be alone. Ah no!

The Republican "progressive" will be supported by Edward A. Thurston, chairman of the State Committee!

Thurston and McCall think all the erring will come home if (after a stage fight) they can get the platform to declare for a constitutional convention, the short ballot, and biennial elections.

Thurston and McCall will win their fight on the floor of the convention. The Committee on Resolutions held a rehearsal last night. Everything went off lovely.

"How about Old Age Pensions?"

"Hush, you mustn't!"

"What about the recall of judges?"

"Do be quiet!"

"And government ownership of public utilities?"

"Silence!"

"And the Initiative and Referendum?"

"Officer, remove that man! He's a regular Progressive."

mere CALLING of a Constitutional Convention does not mean that the Constitutional Convention will ADOPT these reforms.

A splendid example of how much we may expect from a Constitutional Convention, manned and bossed by the reactionaries in accord by the capitalist now on view in New York. By perjury, the New York corporation machine and its Legislature, Mr. Root was placed in charge. The result of their labors, we are told, contains NO ESSENTIAL REFORM, but provides that, if adopted, there can be no further change for twenty years to come.

Place a reactionary in the Governor's chair on Beacon Hill and he will be quick to sign any kind of a bill for a Constitutional Convention, or even to permit a Constitutional Convention to be called, but he will do nothing or worse than nothing.

True Progressives demand, at the State House, the kind of Governor who will veto any bill for a Constitutional Convention which does not assure us of the fair election of really representative men likely to respond to the wishes of the people.

was at least 2 to 1 in the affirmative.

Nevertheless the Initiative and Referendum was slaughtered at the recent session by a Senate under the direction of Charles Sumner Bird. The vote was 10 to 4. Hence, the question NEVER came up in the House. Therefore, the representatives who had received INSTRUCTIONS from their people at home were not called upon to vote upon the question at all. A law of the Senate is, in effect, actually denied.

"A great many Progressives—and I am proud to stand among them—do not believe that Charles Sumner Bird really can stomach a Gang like that. 'As I said to the beginning, and as I believe the AMERICAN made plain yesterday in its political action, the gentlemen who call the Bird letter a Progressive surrender to the Gang did not read Mr. Bird's letter carefully. Permit me to read a paragraph or two of that letter and place proper emphasis on some of its stronger points.'"

My Dear Mr. McCall: I have been interested in some of your speeches in which you have stated that you advocated CERTAIN Progressive doctrine, viz., a Constitutional Convention, a short ballot, biennial elections, a budget system. That is well, SO FAR AS IT GOES."

I hope, upon further consideration, you will see the wisdom of GOING FARTHER, and that you will advocate the inclusion in the Republican platform of the social welfare plank that has been a part of the Progressive program and has been adopted, in part, by the Republican party at other States."

The Initiative and Referendum is, as you know, an ESSENTIAL principle of the Progressive party and also of the Republican party in many States. WHILE I FEEL THAT THE INCLUSION OF THIS PRINCIPLE IN THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM IS HIGHLY IMPORTANT, I realize that this Charles Sumner Bird. I do not want to believe that Mr. Bird has surrendered."

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM. OLD AGE PENSIONS. AND other Progressive essentials, and has accepted in their stead the stand pat promise of a Stand Pat Constitutional Convention, and I WILL not believe it until the Republican convention of Saturday is at an end and we have a surprise as to what the Gang has promised and what Mr. Bird has to say about it."

Tomorrow's State convention of the Democrats will adopt a platform at

have recently said, during the Initiative and Referendum, this vote appeared upon the ballot, the ques-

past three years, that I was NOT SO MUCH INTERESTED IN THE SUCCESS OF THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY AT THE POLLS AS IN THE SUCCESS OF THE PROGRESSIVE PRINCIPLES AS EMBODIED IN OUR PLATFORM."

It is the most important part of our work would be done if we could get our program incorporated in the platform of the old parties. I am of the same opinion today."

If you can get the Republican Convention to adopt a liberal program, one that sincere and progressive men AND WOMEN can subscribe to, I will support it with self-respect and honesty. "It appears to me that the one note in the true Progressive is the apparently childlike faith with which Mr. Bird agrees to accept a Constitutional Convention as a substitute for a stepping-stone to the Initiative and Referendum."

As both his inaugural address, Governor Walsh urged a Constitutional Convention. In two legislatures it has been supported by the Democrats and broken by the Republican majority. Only a few months ago the Constitutional Convention bill was introduced on petition of Russell Wood, a Progressive. The Republicans killed it."

"What has come over the spirit of the Gang to make them lose afraid of a Constitutional Convention?"

"I tell you they have seen the 'cut' of the reactionary Gang in New York, and by Mr. Bird's own admission that there are Constitutional Conventions, and again, Constitutional Conventions. Perhaps they already have their plans made for a Constitutional Convention in Massachusetts, managed, headed and officiated by the Gang. Any time the energetic Gang come along, I should advise all true Progressives to take to the cyclone collar."

"I HOPE the Gang hasn't got Charles Sumner Bird. I do not want to believe that Mr. Bird has surrendered."

Tomorrow's State convention of the Democrats will adopt a platform at

have recently said, during the least as progressive as those of the two previous "Wash" years. The Governor will not submit to the elimination of even one of his progressive planks. He that, politically speaking, all eyes will tomorrow be directed to Tremont Temple, and the attempt of the Gang to build a platform that will "take in" everybody.

VERY PAINFUL PIMPLES ON FACE

Itched and Burned So Could Not Sleep. Started Like Rash. Water Blisters Came.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"Pimples came on one side of my face and itched and burned at night so I could not sleep. They started something like a rash, but raised up in little blotches. They

They were very painful, after a few days, and little festers appeared and then water blisters came. They broke and the water from them seemed to poison my skin. For nearly a week I did not rest much.

"I tried everything I could think of without any relief. One night I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment and that night I slept and the breaking out seemed to be better in the morning. I kept up the treatment, washing with the Cuticura Soap and using the Cuticura Ointment for two weeks and by the end of the second week my face was completely healed." DIAMOND PLAN TALK WITH PHILIPPINES BY PHONE

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—"Hello, Central, give me the Philippines."

If the engineers of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company who are now experimenting with wireless telephony are successful, the foregoing call may become an everyday occurrence.

Following the successful wireless telephony conversation between Washington and California the words of which were distinctly heard by the wireless operator on the shores of Pearl Harbor, Hawaii Islands, Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, announced today that the next experiments would deal with an effort to converse across the Pacific between the United States and the Philippine Islands by means of sound waves.

If such an experiment is successful it will mean that persons may converse half-way around the world, but that is not the end of the effort. When the war in Europe is over world-wide tests will be made.

The distance from the Arlington, Va., naval wireless station and Pearl Harbor, between which wireless conversation was carried, is 4,489 miles.

The words were addressed from the Arlington station to the Mare Island, Cal., wireless station, 5,500 miles away, but Lloyd Eschscholtz of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, who was listening at the wireless station on Pearl Island, heard the words distinctly. These experiments are expected to revolutionize the telephone and in the course of time may do away entirely with trunk lines between cities.

J. J. Carthy, chief engineer of the American Telephone Company, characterized the feat as a miracle. The company now regards wireless conversation between the Atlantic and the Pacific as a practical and accomplished fact.

EMILY PORTER, NEW FIRE CHIEF AT WELLESLEY

GIRL CHIEF RUNS WELLESLEY'S FIRE BRIGADE

Massachusetts has a woman fire chief. She is Miss Emily Porter, and she is the chief of the Wellesley College fire brigade. She gives orders to a dozen fire captains and still more lieutenants.

The Wellesley College fire brigade is no ornamental organization. It is credited with getting every girl out of college hall in safety when the building burned at daylight two years ago, imperiling the lives of hundreds.

Since then the college fire brigade has received much attention from the college authorities, and to be selected as its head is considered a great honor.

Fire Chief Porter comes from Philadelphia and is a member of the class of 1916. The fire captains are: Flank Cottage, Margaret Tallmadge, Auburn, N. Y.

Norman Cottage, Frances Wright, Moylan, Pa.
Reese Hall, Peter Carl, Kingston, N. Y.

Cassanova Hall, Patricia Moran, Sulley, N. J.
Pomeroy Hall, Margaret Jones, Morristown, N. J.

Wood Cottage, Lorena Reynolds, Potomac, N. Y.
Wilder Hall, Mary Budd, Chatham, N. J.

Stone Hall, Ruth Buck, Elmira, N. Y.

SEVENTH ROAD ASKS LEAVE TO RAISE FARES

The Massachusetts Northeastern Street Railway Company today petitioned the Public Service Commission for permission to increase its fares to six cents, on November 1. The present fare is five cents.

This is the seventh street railway to make its move in the State-wide plan to increase fares.

In addition to the proposed increase in cash fares, the railway proposes a twenty per cent. increase in the price of all special tickets.

The Massachusetts Northeastern operates principally in Newburyport, Salisbury, Amesbury, Haverhill, Lawrence, Merrimack, Methuen, Lowell and in Hampton Beach and Nahant, N. H.

Records of the Public Service Commission show the following results in the "lowest" program of Massachusetts railways.

The Middlesex & Boston was allowed to shorten its fare limits.

The North & Bristol was granted sixteen cents and allowed to revise fare limits.

The New Bedford & Onset was allowed six-cent fares over a portion of the line and to shorten its fare limits.

The Berkshire Street Railway Company was allowed a petition for six-cent fares, and its petition for six-cent fares and other changes is pending.

SHORTSTOPS ARE COMPARED TODAY BY FULLERTON

FULLERTON GIVES BANCROFT A SMALL ADVANTAGE OVER SCOTT

Value in Office: Bancroft 621, Scott 737, Fullerton 706, Scott 697

Fullerton, the famous baseball statistician and "dopester," Mr. Fullerton is recognized as one of the leading authorities on the national pastime and consequently his comparisons are not without a certain amount of authority.

He compares Bancroft and Scott, the two shortstops of the Philadelphia Phillies, and gives Bancroft a small advantage over Scott.

He says that Bancroft is a better fielder and a better base runner than Scott, but that Scott is a better hitter and a better pitcher.

He concludes that Bancroft is the better shortstop overall, but that Scott is a better all-around player.

'NIFTY' NEFF, STALLINGS, TUNNEY, FACE PHILS TODAY

The Phillies have already won the flag, but the Braves still like to win the ball game, and they will fight as hard for today's contest as if it were a deciding game.

The game is expected to be a close one, with both teams having a chance to win.

The Phillies are favored to win, but the Braves are not to be underestimated.

THE RABBITS' COLUMN

Waiter J. Marcaville
HISTORIC OF THE BRAVE

I will be a happy young man from now until the world's ending is over. I will, of course, be on the job every day at the Philadelphia Phillies, where I will entertain the public and the press.

Triple Tie for First Place in I.O.O.F. League

The first meeting of the Odd Fellows League, announced today, shows that the Philadelphia Phillies, the New York Yankees, and the Boston Red Sox are tied for first place.

The league is a friendly competition between the three teams, and the results are expected to be close.

TODAY'S GAMES

Philadelphia at Boston
New York at Brooklyn
Chicago at Cincinnati

By HUGH S. FULLERTON

Here, the Shortstops.

Five of the youngsters, coming down, who are expected to play in some big game, will enter in a world's series.

It is a toss-up between them in almost every department of the game, and they are so close together that it is hard to choose between them.

Beyond doubt, Bancroft will be a greater ball player than Scott ever can hope to be. Nature has given him some advantages that are difficult to teach.

He is a better fielder and a better base runner than Scott, but Scott is a better hitter and a better pitcher.

Fed Stars to Tour

The Federal League stars will tour the country, and will play a series of games in the coming months.

The tour is expected to be a success, and will help to promote the league.

'Tis All Over Now; Sox and Phils 'T'

What has been expected for some time has now actually come to pass. The Red Sox and Philadelphia Phillies are the champions of their respective leagues.

The Phillies made their state claim when they blanked the Braves in the first game at Atlanta. The Red Sox, while traveling to Washington, had won the pennant by beating the Braves in a 2-1 victory.

All that is left for the National Commission to promulgate where the first two seasons shall be played.

Revere High After North Shore Title

Revere High is out after the North Shore championship in earnest this fall. Coach W. F. Bennett has a strong eleven captained by Arthur Hall.

The team is expected to win the title, and will play a series of games in the coming months.

Tom Clark Suspended

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Manager Herman of the Cincinnati club announced the suspension for the balance of the season of Charlie Tom Clark, for breaking training rules.

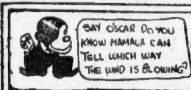

Clark was suspended for the remainder of the season, and will not play in any more games.

BRICKLEY HELPS HAUGHTON'S SQUAD

Charles Brickley, peer of all drop kickers and captain of the Harvard football eleven last year, was not with the Crimson squad yesterday and put in some work with the kicking possibilities of the Haughton squad, which will be one of the best this year. Brickley was over those that had been instructed to make them that they will be able to place the kick over the bar many times in the game this season.

Brickley knows the kicking game from every angle. His practice in practice was an anxious lot, and he was not only a valuable to the team. Brickley spent much time with Whitney one of the best kickees in the country, and the second year, when Brickley was dropping the ball over the bar from all angles. The second eleven of the variety line for a total of eight points in yesterday's encounter. Brickley's kicking material is a workman, and Whitney, the variety kicker, took charge of his own goal line for the other pair of points.

The second eleven of both the variety and scrum started the afternoon's play at substitutions were made as the practice progressed. The last quarter hour of play saw the first teams from both divisions facing one another.

After assembling the second team through the variety for thirty yards on the first four plays. Then the variety settled down, waiting off the attack for the next three plays. On the fourth down, however, Whitney shot around left end, scoring a six-pointer for the scrum.

Find New Fullback in Holy Cross Squad

WORCESTER, Oct. 1.—Coach Lusk Kelly of Holy Cross has found a man to take the place of the fullback in the Holy Cross squad. DOZEN PRINCETON PLAYERS INJURED

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 1.—Students here gloomily predict that if the schedule schedule football game between Princeton and Harvard, which is scheduled for Saturday, is held, it will be a disaster for the Princeton team. A shaft of sunshine of considerable brightness and brilliancy, however, pierced the gloom when "Burr" Lusk, variety fullback in 1911 and 1912, was seen practicing in his old position. Lusk has been ill for several weeks and little hope was held that he could regain his strength in time to join the eleven.

The variety was on the defensive side of the line, while the scrum was being in the line. The variety was on the defensive side of the line, while the scrum was being in the line. The variety was on the defensive side of the line, while the scrum was being in the line.

WHITE HOPES TO WIN TITLE HERE

CHARLEY WHITE, Chicago's ear-splitting citizen, who packs a punch in each hand, declares he will have the New England lightweight championship packed away in his grip when he leaves Boston for Chicago early next Wednesday afternoon. White is booked to exchange blows with Matty Baldwin of Charleston in a twelve-round slugging at the Atlas A. A. next Tuesday night and he already considers the New England lightweight title as well as won.

The local fight fan has a little reason for feeling White. He has given them much trouble in the past. He has already knocked out Gilbert Calhoun, Eddie Murphy and Freddy Yell. Three of the best lightweight fighters in the state. He now claims he will add Baldwin to his list of knockout victims.

Sidelights on Sports

By RIGHT FIELD

We're expected, before we touched the subject to Manager Carrigan of the Red Sox, shortly before he jumped on the train for the team's last trip, to the public prints for his choice of a pitcher for the first game of the World Series. My ample confidence was justified, for Carrigan was mighty nice about it, at that.

"Boss" Billings allowed that it was some time before the coming game and then switched the talk to other lines. Therefore the best we can make out of it at the moment is that he will end in either Wood or Stone. More, of course, will end in Alexander to battle for the landing of the first game and the "doggie" in the series.

That brings us down to the subject of experience, which we read, is a valuable factor. Now, just who among the eligible bachelors has had World Series experience? Wood and Stone are of the Red Sox and Demaree of the Phillies, and that's all.

THE strain on a World Series pitcher is something that one has to go through to appreciate. A whole truck load of things may depend on this ball, or the next. A star in the regular season, may turn out a W. S. fluffer.

NOW Joe Wood has a strong is a World Series veteran. A depend on him in a tight situation. He will be the one to win the series. He will be the one to win the series. He will be the one to win the series.

COMMERCE GETS UNDER WAY TODAY

The High School of Commerce will endeavor to make a better showing than North High did in its opening game when it faces Weymouth High at Weymouth this afternoon. Coach Edward Thorpe has driven his men hard, and although handicapped by the intense heat of the first week of practice, has finally succeeded in getting them well drilled in the fundamentals and a few of the easier features.

Porter, the distinctive end of last season, will probably run the team at quarterback this afternoon. Weymouth has a fairly heavy team. A game of interest will be that between Arlington and Brookline High at the latter's field. For a start-up of Brookline's team, a one touchdown a week ago.

PHILS WILL USE BAKER PARK

By RIGHT FIELD

THE Philadelphia Phillies to the World Series will be played at the Phillies' home grounds. Business manager Shortall of the new owners made the positive declaration during the course of a "tanning bee" at Braves Field.

"Nothing to the story we will say. Nothing to the talk of erecting bleachers on the sidewalk outside the Baker grounds. We'll take care of about 25,000 persons on our home grounds, but say, I was here a plant the site of Braves Field down in Fenwick State. We could fit it all right for the World Series."

THE national pastime arena almost always to have its headquarters at the original Americans in the Big Club. One time it was Rogers of the Giants, then it was "Chief" Bender of the Sox and now it is Benjamin Timp of the Phillies who is its ally.

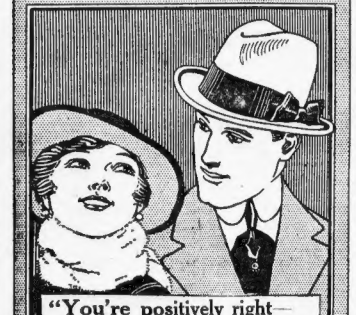

STANWOOD P. BAUMGARTNER, who signed with the Phillies last Summer after finishing his course at the University of Chicago, where he was World Series champion, although other talented men develop last. He was married to Horace E. Blackman of Philadelphia in Chicago when the Phillies last called there. They will furnish a flat in the Windy City with some of the W. S. money.

ARMY LOVES FOUR STARS. WEST POINT, Oct. 1.—Budditt, Britton, Kelly and Hubbard are now on the hospital list and the Army eleven is weakened for its game tomorrow. Only a few minutes' time was available for football, but the coaches drove the Army hard, using three eleven and giving everybody practice in blocking and charging and machine work, blocking, passing and signal drill.

People Who Are Professed Peace Advocates Should Do Something to Sub- stantiate Their Profes- sions

If some mighty angel such as John, lone in Patmos, saw in a vision, standing in the sun, pronouncing great Babylon's doom, had looked down upon this earth during these days that are just passing, what a furious and frightful tragedy of hate and murder would he have seen with pitying eyes.

In that fair and lovely region of France where, but a few months ago, thousands of happy and contented folk lived their simple lives of industry and production, the watcher in the sun would have seen six millions of human beings horribly striving to maim and kill one another with every infernal weapon which science has placed in the hands of madmen, bent on the destruction of peoples and of civilization.

In Russia, in Turkey, in the Balkans, in Austria, in Italy, the same watcher in the sun would have seen other millions of human beings enduring the extremities of suffering—starving in the fire-breasted dyes, dying by the roadsides, perishing in the swamps, perishing here of cold, perishing there of burning heat and thirst, drowning in rivers, drowning in the seas, blown to fragments by cannon, shot and stabbed and hacked and ground to putrid pulp under the feet of rushing madmen or the hoofs of crazed horses—a awful, dreadful, indescribable, inconceivable and incredible orgy of savage, brutal, heathenish butchery and destruction.

And the same watcher in the sun, averting his eyes from so much unbearable horror and insanity, would have seen in Christian America men and women who assert themselves to be Christian men and women and humane men and women and who are not ashamed to pray to the God of mercy and compassion in the name of the Jesus of Meekness and Love cheering on this devil's work, applauding this bestial orgy, providing these madmen with the means and the weapons with which to murder one another, and to bring inconceivable misery and woe upon Europe's innocent and unhappy peoples.

Men and women of America, what has become of our goodness of heart, our kindness and our humanity? And how is it possible that all this accumulated and immense grief and sorrow and suffering does not move us to compassion, does not excite us to put forth the nation's huge moral power and influence to end this horrible destruction of our race and of our civilization?

You husbands and fathers, how can you look upon your own dear wives and children, so merry and happy and safe from harm, and have no thrills of compassion for the sorrowful and anguished and terror-stricken wives and children, for the widows and orphans who weep for their dead in distressed and devastated Europe?

You wives and mothers, how can you look upon your own husbands and sons, bringing home to you each day the comforts won by the day's work and the sunshine of love and affection, and be not moved to the soul with compassion for your sisters who are suffering so in unhappy Europe?

Good people, this is an awful war! It is the insanity of wickedness. The very rulers and ministers who among them began it are lying to God and to men in the effort to escape the obloquy and the guilt of their dreadful deeds. It is a senseless war, from which humanity has nothing to hope; a war of national, racial and dynastic jealousies and antipathies; a war of greed and rapine.

Beginning in folly and stupidity, it has degenerated into a universal madness of destruction that threatens to topple our dear-won civilization to its fall and ruin.

Citizens, we owe it to God, to mankind and to ourselves to try, at least, to stop this war.

And, citizens, we are false to our duty to God, to mankind and to ourselves if, instead of trying to stop this war, we most wickedly provide the means of prolonging it.

Every dollar of the profits earned by supplying the weapons and the money to prolong this war is a wicked dollar, an accursed dollar, stained in the sight of God and in the eyes of all right-thinking men and women, with the blood and tears of suffering humanity.

Americans, we cannot afford to have our country enriched with such money as that.

It is the price of innocent blood, the wages of humanity's betrayal, obnoxious to every sentiment of manly and good American hearts.

Better were it for our peace, our honor and our welfare, now and in time to come, that we sank the gold ten times over in the depths of the sea, rather than so to sell Europe's peoples to suffering and despair and death for wicked blood money.

As we have only indignation for those Americans who would prolong this war, so we have only contempt for those Americans who insist that we can do nothing to stop this war.

Even if we should not succeed in stopping this war, we can at least TRY TO STOP IT.

We think that this war can be stopped.

We believe that the President of the United States,

OUR FIRST DUTY IS TO MAINTAIN PEACE; OUR NEXT DUTY IS TO PREPARE FOR WAR

AU REVOIR, BUT NOT GOOD-BY.

Copyright, 1915, by International News Service.

with the Congress of the United States to help, and the unanimous sentiment of the people of the United States back of them both, could end this war in sixty days.

If the peaceful representations of the United States were flouted by these war maniacs, there is a peaceful weapon they will not flout.

If the United States should refuse to sell any of the combatants supplies and munitions and refuse to lend any of them money, the war would automatically stop in sixty days.

Then there is another way. As was said in an editorial printed in this newspaper on August 10:

"There is reason to believe that all the nations at war would now gladly welcome the formation of a league of neutral nations which could offer the mediation of a wholly impartial body."

"Reading between the lines, it is not hard to see that all of the belligerents are heartily sick of the war; heartily sorry that they ever engaged in it; heartily willing to be done with it, if only some way out that will save their faces can be opened to them."

And in a previous editorial, dated July 26, this paper said:

"Furthermore, such a league of the neutral nations and a board of arbitration so constituted would be in a wonderful position TO BRING THE WAR TO A QUICK TERMINATION. It could bring to bear not only the PERSUASION of a wholly impartial body, but the direct influence of a very powerful league—a league POWERFUL ENOUGH ABSOLUTELY TO COMPEL an end of the war in case it elected to exert its power in a forcible way."

Now, here are TWO practicable methods by which we Americans can exert ourselves to end the war. And there may be other methods as efficacious.

But our government tries NO method, and seems unwilling to try ANY method.

Of course, we suppose that nobody would seriously call WATCHFUL WAITING a method of DOING anything. And if anybody did, we have certainly had enough of WATCHFUL WAITING in Mexico.

We have waited and watched Mexico for three years, and in those shameful three years war has been savagely waged, any number of Americans have been killed, any amount of injury has been inflicted upon American property and upon American trade and commerce, American rights have been denied, American pride has been humbled, the confidence of Americans in the power and protection of their government has been shaken, and the respect of our neighbors and of the world for our government and our citizens has been disgracefully diminished.

The situation in Mexico is not only no better than it has been, but is even worse than it ever has been.

The conflict is no longer confined to Mexico. It overflows the borders of Mexico and invades the United States. It murders American citizens in our own territory. It attacks and kills the soldiers who are defending our people and our property at home.

LET OUR GOVERNMENT FOR THREE LONG YEARS HAS DONE NOTHING TO PROTECT OUR CITIZENS OR TO RESTORE PEACE TO DEVASTATED MEXICO.

We can only say of watchful waiting, in the words of the Book: "Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns or figs of thistles?"

We Americans are advocates of peace. Our present administration is peculiarly and particularly and almost professionally an advocate of peace.

And yet, what are the FRUITS of our attitude and advocacy?

What have we DONE to restore peace in Europe, to restore peace in Mexico?

We have DONE NOTHING.

On the contrary, our attitude of watchful waiting and weakly wabbling has done much to INCREASE disorder and disaster in Mexico.

Our willingness to supply money and arms to the battling nations abroad has done much to PROLONG murder and destruction in Europe.

It is time that our people and our administration DID SOMETHING to support and to substantiate their professions.

It is within our power to secure peace in Europe. It is within our power to COMPEL order in Mexico.

WE PROFESS to desire peace in Europe and order in Mexico.

THEN WHY DO WE NOT DO SOMETHING TO SUBSTANTIATE OUR PROFESSIONS?

"Hail! Hail! The Gang's All Here"

This Was Mr. Bird's Denunciation of the Last Republican Convention. Has a Single One of the "Gang" Departed, or Has a Single One of Them Relinquished His Strangle Hold on the Republican Party?

MR. CHARLES SUMNER BIRD says that he will support Mr. McCall, the Republican candidate, if the Republican party will agree in its platform to a constitutional convention.

But what kind of a constitutional convention will Mr. Bird insist that the Republicans agree to call? Mr. Bird refers to the New York constitutional convention. Does he approve of that kind of a convention? Does he not know that this convention, presided over by Elihu Root, and dominated by the interests which dominate Mr. Root, produced one of the most illiberal and narrow reactionary constitutions which has been formulated in twenty-five years?

This constitutional convention has not given the people of the State of New York an opportunity to adopt a SINGLE ESSENTIAL reform, including the Initiative and Referendum, and its approval will prevent any reform in the organic government in the State of New York for the next twenty years. Such a convention would be the worst political disaster that Massachusetts could suffer.

It is unbelievable that Mr. Bird has read this constitution, the handwork of Root. THE AMERICAN has carried a copy of it to be mailed to Mr. Bird today, and we earnestly hope that he will read it and let the public know what he thinks of it and the kind of a constitutional convention that is called by Republican reactionaries.

Mr. Bird appears to lay some stress upon the short ballot. This is an experiment which may prove sound, but it is an experiment. When you concentrate power you make it easier for those who are powerful to exercise their power. Mr. Bird knows that the citadel of the corporation interests is in our State Senate, where there are but forty men to handle. He knows that in the House of Representatives, with its two hundred and forty members, all liberal reforms are born. He knows also that in the Senate, with its forty members, all these reforms meet an untimely grave.

He knows that this last year his own Progressives condemned the action of the Republican Senate, under the leadership of Mr. Calvin Coolidge, Mr. McCall's colleague on the Republican ticket, for conduct which marked it as the worst Senate which the State has known for years. He knows that these forty members were so controllable that Mr. Coolidge was enabled to defeat the Initiative and Referendum without even allowing a rollcall so that the citizens of the State might know how their representatives voted on this vital question.

The truth of Mr. Bird's attitude lies in his very bitter opposition to President Wilson's foreign policy. He admits Governor Walsh's fine record. He admits that his attitude on political questions is liberal and splendid, but he would sacrifice him to his feelings concerning a national policy over which Governor Walsh has no control.

The citizens of Massachusetts have never refused a third term to a good Governor in this Commonwealth. A third term is a traditional reward for efficient and faithful public service. The people understand that it would be very hard to get an honorable public servant unless they appreciate him when they get him. Hence they have always risen above even State partisanship to reward a good Governor when he has substantiated an account of his stewardship for a third term. Still less is Massachusetts accustomed to sacrifice a good Governor on account of a national policy over which he has no control.

I HEARD you laugh

Out in the crowded way.

And in a weary woman stopped to smile.

A newboy sold a dozen papers, while

A straying sublimed touched your cheek in play;

I heard you laugh.

I heard you laugh.

'Twas in a darkened room

Where pain had made the hours seem draw and slow

And in the sickroom echoed with a song—

A breath of spirit that lightened all the gloom;

I heard you laugh.
